- Please provide details below.

A1. Applicant's fit and proper person declaration

The Clean Energy Regulator is not able to open an account in the ANREU, or recognise an offsets entity under the Carbon Farming Initiative, without first considering whether the applicant is a fit and proper person. This fit and proper person requirement is one of a number of features designed to reduce the risk of fraud, deceptive or unfair conduct, and non-compliance.

- In this section, provide information on any matters that may affect the Clean Energy Regulator's consideration of whether you are a fit and proper person. You should provide information on any matters that occurred within the last ten years.

  Please note, the type, severity and frequency of any conviction will be considered. A conviction may not disqualify an applicant. Failure to disclose relevant convictions may adversely impact the assessment of an application.

  In addition to the matters addressed below, the Clean Energy Regulator will take into consideration the applicant's compliance history under a range of laws, including the:

  - Clean Energy Act 2011
  - National Greenhouse and Energy Reporting Act 2007
  - Renewable Energy (Electricity) Act 2000
  - Carbon Credits (Carbon Farming Initiative) Act 2011
  - Australian National Registry of Emissions Units Act 2011, and
