To carry out water supply, sanitary and drainage plumbing work in Western Australia you must hold either a plumbing contractor's licence or a tradesperson's licence issued by the Plumbers Licensing Board ("the Board"). The Board issues licences under the Water Services Licensing (Plumbers Licensing and Plumbing Standards) Regulations 2000 ("the Regulations").

A tradesperson's licence authorises the holder to:

- carry out water supply and sanitary and/or drainage plumbing work as specified on the licence; and
- supervise the carrying out of such work by an apprentice, under the general direction and control of the holder of a plumbing contractor's licence.

In accordance with the Regulations, to be eligible to obtain a tradesperson's licence an applicant must:

- demonstrate to the Board that they are:
 - competent in carrying out water supply, sanitary and/or drainage plumbing work; and
 - a fit and proper person to hold a licence.
- provide to the Board two (2) certified passport sized photographs.

2. Supporting Documentation

- Or
- hold a qualification recognised by the Board at "registration/journeyman" level and demonstrate that you have at least four (4) years practical experience in water supply, sanitary and/or drainage plumbing work.

If the qualifications recognised by the Board are not at tradesperson level or higher, to obtain a tradesperson's licence you will be required to undertake a course and pass a test in plumbing work involving both theoretical and practical components. You will not be able to undertake the course or sit this test unless you have demonstrated that you have at least four (4) years practical experience in water supply, sanitary and drainage plumbing work, or (2) years practical experience in the case of drainage only plumbing work.

To demonstrate practical experience, you need to provide detailed written references from previous employers stating the period of the employment together with specific examples of plumbing work that you have carried out.

If you hold a current licence in another Australian State/Territory or New Zealand you may be entitled to apply for a licence under the Mutual Recognition (Western Australia) Act 2001 or the Trans-Tasman Mutual Recognition (Western Australia) Act 2007. Refer to part three (3) of these Guidelines (page 3) for further information about applying for a licence under these Acts.

Further details about competency requirements can be obtained from the Licensing Team on (08) 9476 1377.

2.2 Re-Issue of a Licence

If you have previously held a tradesperson's licence issued by the Board, or equivalent organisation, in Western Australia, you will also need to make a statement declaring the extent of plumbing activity you have been involved in since your tradesperson's licence (or other) expired by completing section five (5), Re-issue of a Licence, of the application form on page six (6).

To be eligible for a licence you may be required to undertake retraining. If you are required to undertake retraining a member of the Licensing Team will contact you.

2.3 Fit and Proper Test

To be eligible to obtain a tradesperson's licence, the Board must be satisfied that you are a fit and proper person to hold a licence. To enable the Board to assess your application you are required to provide:

- a current National Police Certificate;
- details of any charges against you (including pending);
- details of any disqualifications from holding an occupational licence; and
- details of two referees.

2.3.1 Police Certificate

You must provide a National Police Certificate, which is no more than three (3) months old at the time of lodging your application. A National Police Certificate lists a person's criminal history (if any), recorded in any state or territory of Australia. Original or certified copies only.

If you have lived in Australia for more than two years and currently reside in Western Australia you must apply for a National Police Certificate in person at your local Australia Post outlet and provide suitable identification. Please visit at www.police.wa.gov.au for further information.

Applicants from other Australian States/Territories/New Zealand

If you are not currently living in Western Australia, but have been living in Australia for more than two years you can apply for a National Police Certificate in person at the police service of the state or territory in which you currently reside.

Applicants from Overseas

If you are not currently living in Australia or have been living in Australia for less than two years please contact the Licensing Team on (08) 9476 1377 to discuss your application.

2.3.2 Charges

As part of your application you are required to provide the details of any charges that have been made against you. You are required to provide the name of the court and the state or territory in which the charge has been made as well as the nature and circumstances of the alleged offence.

You are required to provide full details of all of the particulars including the name of the type of licence, the issuing authority, the date of the disqualification and the reason the licence was refused, suspended or cancelled.

2.3.4 Character References

To support your application you are required to provide the details of two referees, that have known you for at least 12 months, who can substantiate your character. It is preferable that your referees are previous employers. Prior to submitting your application, please notify your referees that they will be contacted as part of the application process. No person under the age of 18 years or a relative can be nominated as a character reference.

2.4 Provision of Photographs

To obtain your tradesperson's licence you will need to provide two (2) identical photographs of yourself attached to your application. The photographs must be:

- passport sized (45mm length x 35mm width);
- a full front view of your head and shoulders; and
- less than one month old at the time of submitting the application for tradesperson's licence.

A competent witness (refer to page 11 of this booklet for a list of competent witnesses) must complete the declaration on pages eight (8) and nine (9) as well as sign the reverse side of the photographs. You will need to ensure that you provide identification of yourself to the competent witness completing the declaration to the value of 100 points (refer to the declaration on pages eight (8) and nine (9) of this booklet for a list of documents that can be used as identification and the point value assigned).

Please note that the quality of the photographs provided will have a direct impact on the quality of the image that will appear on your licence card. Please ensure that the photographs you provide are clear with the image focused. Video camera, e-mailed or photocopied images will not be accepted.

The Board may refuse to issue a licence to you if:

1. the Board is not satisfied that the photograph is a current image;
2. the photograph is unclear; or
3. the photograph would not serve its purpose if it were included as part of the licence identification card.

Photographs will remain the property of the Board and will not be returned to applicants under any circumstance.

3. Mutual Recognition

If you are registered/licensed at journeyman level elsewhere in Australia or New Zealand and that registration or licence is current at the time of lodgement of your application, you are entitled to apply for a tradesperson's licence under the Mutual Recognition (Western Australia) Act 2001 or the Trans-Tasman Mutual Recognition (Western Australia) Act 2007. These Acts provide for the recognition of occupational licensing in other Australian states and territories and New Zealand.

To apply for a licence under mutual recognition you need to provide a certified copy of your current registration/licence from the State/Territory or New Zealand where you are registered or licensed to carry out plumbing work. You must also complete the Mutual Recognition Statutory Declaration on page ten (10) and declare it before a competent witness (refer to page 11 of this booklet for a list of competent witnesses).

When the Board has received your completed application together with all supporting documentation, under the Mutual Recognition (Western Australia) Act 2001 or the Trans-Tasman Mutual Recognition (Western Australia) Act 2007 you are deemed to hold a tradesperson's licence in Western Australia until a decision about your application has been made. Please visit www.licencerecognition.gov.au for further information about licence equivalency.

If you are not applying for a licence under Mutual Recognition you are not required to complete the declaration on page ten (10).
