

Positron Emission Tomography

Purpose of this statutory declaration

To be eligible to perform Positron Emission Tomography (PET) services, a provider must complete a statutory declaration that lists the provider number and Location Specific Practice Number (LSPN) of the diagnostic imaging practice.

The Australian Government Department of Human Services will advise the provider of their PET eligibility in writing upon the receipt of a completed statutory declaration.

Instructions

The provider must complete the attached statutory declaration and provide the following information to the Department of Human Services:

- full name of the person making the statutory declaration
- the location where the PET services are provided
- the provider number to be used at this location
- the LSPN, and
- details of the PET equipment.

A reference to 'comprehensive facility' in the attached statutory declaration is a reference to a building or part of a building, or more than one building, where all of the following services are performed: PET, computed tomography, diagnostic ultrasound, medical oncology, radiation oncology, surgical oncology and x-ray.

Eligibility for Medicare benefits is based on the equipment specified in the statutory declaration. The Department of Human Services should be contacted immediately if the equipment specified in the statutory declaration is replaced or moved to a new location.
