

Application to use the word ‘university’ in an Australian domain name

The Department of Education (the Department) is responsible for considering applications to use the word ‘university’ or letters, words or expressions of like import to the word ‘university’ in Australian domain names. Applicants must refer to the Guidelines for use of the word ‘university’ in Australian domain names (the Guidelines) when completing applications.

Applicant details

Contact name:

Address:

Telephone:

Email:

Website details

Proposed domain name/s:

Company/business/organisation name, and description of main business activities:

ABN/ACN:

Description of website content:

Statement against criteria in the Guidelines

This statement should include any information that may assist in considering this application. It should refer to the relevant criteria in the Guidelines.

Supporting documentation

Please refer to the Guidelines for any relevant supporting documentation you may need to include with this application. List any attachments here.

Submitting applications

Applications including all supporting documentation should be emailed within 14 calendar days of notice from auDA to:

highered@education.gov.au

Further information

Enquiries should be directed to the Department of Education via email to highered@education.gov.au

Privacy Notice

Personal information provided to the Department is protected by the Privacy Act 1988. The Department collects your personal information for the purposes of processing your application and corresponding with you regarding the outcome of your application. The Department may disclose your personal information:

- to other Commonwealth Departments or agencies including the Australian Investment and Securities Commission (ASIC), the Tertiary Education Quality and Standards Agency (TEQSA), State or Territory governments or agencies for the purposes of determining the outcome of the application and/or for the purpose of notification of the application outcome;
- by consent; and
- where permitted or required by or under law.