

This FACT sheet provides information on the requirements for a person to obtain an Ammunition Permit - clause 69A of the Firearms Regulation 2006.

An Ammunition Permit applies to a person who is employed by or in partnership with a person and who wishes to buy and possess ammunition for use in a firearm registered to their employer or business partner.

What does an Ammunition Permit authorise?

An Ammunition Permit authorises the permit holder to purchase and possess ammunition for firearms registered to the employer or business partner of the applicant and of a type which are specified on the permit.

Why would I need this permit?

To purchase ammunition, a person must be authorised by a licence or permit for a firearm that takes the type of ammunition being purchased OR they must be authorised by a permit to purchase the ammunition. The Ammunition Permit authorises the purchase of ammunition by a person who is not otherwise authorised to possess or purchase ammunition.

What is ammunition?

Section 4 of the Firearms Act 1996 defines ammunition as including:

- * Any article consisting of a cartridge case fitted with a primer and a projectile, or
- * Any article consisting of a cartridge case fitted with a primer and containing a propelling charge and a projectile, or
- * Blank cartridges, airgun pellets, training cartridges or gas cartridges, or
- * Any other article prescribed by the regulations for the purpose of this definition.

Who can apply for an Ammunition Permit?

1. A person who is employed or engaged by a person, including a government agency, in whose name a firearm is registered. The applicant must provide evidence that it is a part of their duties in the course of their employment or engagement to purchase ammunition for use in the firearm/s registered to their employer .

OR

2. A person who carries on business in partnership with a person in whose name a firearm is registered. The applicant must prove that it is part of their duties in the course of their business partnership to purchase ammunition for use in the firearm/s registered to their business partner.

In all cases, the Ammunition Permit will only authorise the purchase of ammunition for the type of firearms specified on the permit.

How & where is the ammunition purchased?

Ammunition is purchased from a licensed firearms dealer or the holder of a Purchase and Sell Ammunition permit. To purchase ammunition, the permit holder must produce at the time of sale their current Ammunition Permit specifying a type of firearm that takes the type of ammunition being purchased.

What about safe storage of ammunition?

Safe storage of ammunition must comply with the legislative requirements and as recommended by the Commissioner of Police (see FACT Sheet - 'Ammunition Safe Storage, Purchase and Possession').

What is the term of the permit?

The term of the permit will not exceed 5 years and is linked to the term of the employer's or business partner's firearms licence.

How much will my permit cost?

The prescribed fee for this permit is $30.

Your payment must accompany the application. You may pay by cheque or money order made payable to the NSW Police Force or by filling out the credit card details on the reverse of the permit application form.

How do I apply for an Ammunition Permit?

You must complete the P634 'Application for a Firearms Permit' form and the 'Ammunition Permit Legitimate Reason' form and where applicable provide any supporting documentation.

Please see the reverse of this FACT Sheet for instructions on how to complete the P634 form.
