Permit to Authorise Storage of Firearms in NSW

This FACT sheet provides information on the requirements for obtaining a permit to authorise interstate registered firearms to be stored on a permanent basis in NSW

Interstate licence or permit holders wishing to store firearms in NSW must be authorised to do so by a Commissioners Firearm Permit.

What does a Permit to Authorise Storage of Firearms in NSW authorise?

This permit authorises the permit holder to store firearms in NSW on a permanent basis.

NOTE: The firearms must be registered in your state or territory of residence.

Who would make application for this permit?

A person who:

1. Resides outside NSW in another Australian State or Territory, and
2. Is authorised in that State or Territory to possess and use firearms, and
3. Has firearms that are registered to that Interstate licence, and
4. Wishes to store some or all of those firearms in NSW on a permanent basis.

Why is it necessary to obtain a permit for this purpose?

All firearms registered in NSW are recorded on police systems with details of the firearm, details of the registered owner and details of the safe storage address.

At all times NSW Police are able to identify locations where firearms are kept, the number and type of firearms and the licence or permit holders who are storing firearms at that location.

Where firearms that are registered interstate are stored in NSW, there is no way of recording the details of the number and type of firearms and the registered owner of those firearms, unless a permit is issued to the Interstate resident authorising possession in NSW for the purpose of safe keeping.

NSW Police regularly conduct safe storage audits of the safe keeping facilities of all firearms licence and permit holders in NSW. These audits ensure compliance by the licence or permit holder with the safe storage requirements prescribed by Part 4 of the Firearms Act 1996.

What is the term of the permit and how much will my permit cost?

The permit will be issued for a maximum term of 5 years and the prescribed fee for this permit is $75. Your payment must accompany the application.

What restrictions apply to this permit?

This permit will only be issued if the Commissioner of Police is satisfied that the applicant has a legitimate reason for the storage of firearms in NSW and the firearms are registered to the interstate licence.

It is a condition of the permit that the permit holder must hold a valid interstate licence or permit authorising possession and use of firearms in their State or Territory of residence for the life of the permit and that firearms remain registered for the life of the permit.

What about safe storage?

The safe storage facilities must be inspected by police. In addition, if the safe storage location of the firearms are a vacant premises, you must provide details of any additional security measures that are in place to reduce the risk of firearm theft. The permit holder must comply with the safe keeping requirements of the Firearms Act 1996 in relation to firearms authorised by this permit. The level of safe storage applicable is dependent on the type of firearms for which you are authorised. See the FACT Sheets on our 'Safe Storage' page available on our website or by requesting a copy of the applicable FACT Sheet by contacting the Firearms Registry.

What if I want to use my firearm/s in NSW?
