

LICENCE AMENDMENT APPLICATION

Motor Dealers and Repairers Act 2013

Cessation of Selling Motor Vehicles on a Wholesale Basis Only

The Compensation Fund contribution payable in relation to a motor dealer's licence is not payable if the person carries on the business of dealing in motor vehicles on a wholesale basis only.

The licence of a person who does not pay the Compensation Fund contribution is subject to the condition that the person must not carry on the business of dealing in motor vehicles other than on a wholesale basis.

The licence holder may pay the Compensation Fund contribution component to remove the condition.
