

Application for admission as a lawyer for applicants never previously admitted anywhere (Form 10)

Use this form if you have never previously been admitted as a lawyer anywhere (including anywhere in Australia or another country).

If you have been previously admitted as a lawyer anywhere outside Australia or New Zealand, please use Form 11.

If you have been admitted as a lawyer in New Zealand you must apply to the Supreme Court of NSW under the Trans Tasman Mutual Recognition Act (NSW) 1996. If you have been admitted in another Australian state or territory please contact either the NSW Bar Association or the Law Society of NSW.

Please read the instructions in this form carefully

The instructions will help you complete the form correctly.

Please ensure you complete every question on every page of the form.

Your application may be delayed if you have not followed the instructions or not completed every question.

You can fill in the form electronically, and then print it out to sign. Or you can print the form, and fill it in by handwriting.

Attach all the required documentation

The form will indicate which documents you are required to attach to your application, according to your own particular circumstances.

Please ensure you attach all the required documentation. Your application cannot be processed if any of your documentation is missing. If the form specifies that the document must be original, then only an original will be accepted.

The checklist at Part L of the form will help you check that you have attached all the required documentation.

Sign your form in front of an authorised witness

You must sign the statutory declaration at the end of the form, in the presence of an authorised witness. Authorised witnesses include either a Justice of the Peace or an Australian legal practitioner. More information is at Part K of the form.

Send us your form with your fee payment

The application fee is notified on the Board's website. Payment may be made by credit card (Mastercard or Visa only), bank cheque, solicitor firm cheque*, money order, or cash/EFTPOS (cash/EFTPOS hand delivery only). A credit card payment form is available at www.lpab.justice.nsw.gov.au

Send your completed form, together with your required documentation and your payment of the admission fee, to the Legal Profession Admission Board at either:

Post GPO Box 3980, Sydney NSW 2001

PART E: Any criminal history

Q.12 Attach an original Australian National Police Certificate

You must attach to your application an original Australian National Police Certificate, which shows whether or not you have any criminal history in Australia.

Your National Police Certificate must:

- be dated no earlier than 6 months prior to the date your application is received
- include all previous names by which you have been known
- be a type of certificate that includes spent convictions.

A 'spent conviction' involves a minor offence which, after a specified crime-free period, may no longer need to be disclosed in certain circumstances. However, even spent convictions must be disclosed when applying for admission as a lawyer, due to clause 6 of the Criminal Records Regulation 2014 (NSW).

If you reside in NSW and you are currently in Australia, you can apply online for a National Police Check through the NSW Police Force website www.police.nsw.gov.au by using the online form.

In the online application form, you should request a 'Name and Date of Birth Check'. When the online form prompts you to enter the purpose of the check, you should select 'Other', and then type in the text 'Admission as lawyer'.

If you reside in Australia but not in NSW, you should apply for a National Police Check through the local police force of the state or territory in which you currently reside.

When applying, you should request a 'Name and Date of Birth Check' (or the local equivalent) and ensure that the type of check you request is one which will disclose any spent convictions on your record.

If you are not physically located in Australia, you cannot apply online for a National Police Check through any state or territory police force. Instead you must apply through the website of the Australian Federal Police (AFP) at www.afp.gov.au by using the online form.

For more information about National Police Checks see the Guide for Applicants at: www.lpab.justice.nsw.gov.au

Q.13 Did you obtain an academic qualification in law* outside Australia AND/OR have you resided in a jurisdiction outside Australia for more than 2 years after the age of 18?

No ► Go to Part F

Yes ► Name the jurisdiction(s) in which you obtained an academic qualification in law* and/or all jurisdictions outside Australia in which you have resided for more than 2 years after the age of 18. You must also attach an original report from the police in each of these jurisdictions, whether or not you have any criminal history in any jurisdiction.

* This is required even if you have gone on to obtain an Australian academic qualification that satisfies admission requirements in Australia.

 For a definition refer to the section on police reports in the Guide for Applicants at: www.lpab.justice.nsw.gov.au

PART F: Student conduct

Q.14 Have you ever been the subject of any disciplinary action by the tertiary institution(s) at which you obtained your academic qualification in law that you rely on for admission or any practical legal training provider, in relation to your student conduct?

Yes ► If yes, you must attach an original student conduct report from each institution or provider which subjected you to any disciplinary action in relation to your student conduct.
The report(s) must be dated no earlier than 6 months prior to the date your application is received.
For more information about obtaining student conduct reports, see the Guide for Applicants at: www.lpab.justice.nsw.gov.au

No ► Go to Q.15

Warning: Random audits are conducted

The Legal Profession Admission Board will obtain student conduct reports, directly from institutions or providers, in relation to a random selection of applicants.

Your application may be selected for a random check, regardless of whether or not you have disclosed that you were subject to disciplinary action in relation to your student conduct.

Your signed consent to the Board obtaining your student conduct reports directly from any relevant institution or provider is required as a condition of the processing of your application. If the Board obtains your reports directly, the Board will meet the cost itself.

Q.15 Please complete and sign the consent below

I, the undersigned, consent to the Legal Profession Admission Board obtaining student conduct reports about me directly from any tertiary institution or practical legal training provider which I have attended at any time in the past.

PART H: Any disclosures

Note: You must disclose the details of any matter(s) which:

- might be relevant to the Legal Profession Admission Board's consideration of whether or not you are a fit and proper person to be admitted as a lawyer, and/or
- a reasonable applicant would consider that the Board might regard as not being favourable to you when considering whether or not you are a fit and proper person to be admitted as a lawyer.

This includes the details of any matters for which you have ticked 'Yes' in Questions 16 to 27 in Part G.

Before completing Q.28 below, you should read the Disclosure Guidelines for Applicants for Admission to the Legal Profession.

Q.28 Do you have anything to disclose, in accordance with the Disclosure Guidelines?

Yes ► If yes, you must provide a disclosure statement at Part I setting out the full details of the circumstances of the matter(s) you are disclosing.

You must also give a copy of your disclosure statement to each of your character referees.

No ► Go to Part J

Warning: Attempts to mislead may have serious consequences

A lack of candour or any attempt to mislead the Board may result in your application being deferred or refused. If a matter is not disclosed at the time you apply for admission but subsequently comes to light it may lead to your name being struck off the Roll of Lawyers. You have an ongoing obligation of disclosure to the Board whilst your application is in progress. If any relevant matter occurs subsequent to your signing your application, you must notify the Board in writing in a statutory declaration.
