

QUESTIONNAIRE – TATTOOING

Applicant & Business Details

Name of premises:.....

Address of premises Postcode

Operators nameMobile:.....

Email address.....

Questions

1. Name three diseases that can be spread by infected blood or other body substances

1:
.....

2:
.....

3:
.....

2. What is 'Cross Contamination' and why is it important to avoid it?

.....
..

.....
..

.....
..

3. Give two examples of how this can occur during tattooing procedures?

1:
.....

2:
.....

4. If your customer starts to bleed, what basic actions/procedures should you take and why?

.....
..
.....
..
.....
..

5. What type of records should you keep about a client?

.....
..
.....
..
.....
..

6. Name a solution that can be used to disinfect the skin to be tattooed.

.....
..
.....
..
.....
..

7. Pick the description that best describes the following terms (please circle a,b,c or d).

Sterilisation

- a) A process that should eliminate all forms of microbial life, including bacterial spores;
- b) A process of removing body substances and other debris and reducing the number of micro-organisms by a process such as washing in detergent;
- c) A process of eliminating all micro-organisms except bacterial spores;

d) A process that includes all of the above processes.

Disinfection

- a) A process that should eliminate all forms of microbial life, including bacterial spores;
- b) A process of removing body substances and other debris and reducing the number of micro-organisms by a process such as washing in detergent;
- c) A process of eliminating all micro-organisms except bacterial spores;
- d) A process that includes all of the above processes.

Cleaning

- a) A process that should eliminate all forms of microbial life, including bacterial spores;
- b) A process of removing body substances and other debris and reducing the number of micro-organisms by a process such as washing in detergent;
- c) A process of eliminating all micro-organisms except bacterial spores;
- d) A process that includes all of the above processes.

8. Hand washing should occur:

- a) Between customers
- b) After using the toilet
- c) After cleaning
- d) After smoking
- e) Before putting gloves on & after taking gloves off
- f) All of the above

9. When must gloves be disposed of?

- a) After answering the telephone;
- b) After contact with blood & body fluids;
- c) After touching anything that is not clean;
- d) All of the above;
- e) a and b only.

10. Surfaces and equipment can become contaminated when operators...

- a) Adjust overhead light fittings;

- b) Adjust settings on equipment or power packs;
- c) Answer the telephone
- d) Touch curtains, drapes or bin lids;
- e) Adjust furniture and equipment;
- f) All of the above.

11. Any creams or ointments used during or after tattooing must be dispensed by...

- a) Placing the nozzle directly on the skin;
- b) Using a clean finger to get it out and spread it around;
- c) Using a clean, single-use applicator which is then disposed of in the infectious waste bin;
- d) All of the above.

12. How must used items such as cotton balls and gloves be disposed?

.....
..
.....
..
.....
..

13. How often should the linen/covers on the treatment table/area be changed?

.....
..
.....
..
.....
..

14. Should a client that has sores or an infection where they want a tattoo, be done? Why?

.....
..
.....
..

.....
..

15. Dye-dispensing – How would you transfer dye from the stock jar/bottle to the mixing cap?

.....
..
.....
..
.....
..

16. Describe how you would clean the hand piece after each use.

.....
..
.....
..
.....
..

17. Can you re-use dye caps?

.....
..
.....
..
.....
..

18. What should be used to remove excess fluids (eg blood or dyes) from the area being tattooed?

.....
..
.....
..
.....
..

19. What procedure will you use to ensure 'cross contamination' does not occur if you need to put the hand piece down during a tattoo?

.....
..
.....
..
.....
..

20. Is mobile tattooing permitted in Tasmania?

.....
..
.....
..
.....
..