EXPLANATORY NOTES - PLEASE READ CAREFULLY

- A maximum of 1200 scallop quota units, whether permanently or seasonally held, may be specified on a fishing licence (scallop) at any time.
- To be seasonally leased, units must be (fully) uncaught, including research quota.
- All units which are transferred on a seasonal basis will automatically revert back to the original licence holder at the end of the quota year.
- Leased units cannot be re-transferred to another entitlement without the transfer being acknowledged by the original licence holder. A signature from the owner of the units is required on this transfer form.

Personal information will be collected from you for the purposes of maintaining a register of persons holding authorisations and fishing certificates pursuant to the Living Marine Resources Management Act 1995 and will be used by the Department for purposes permitted by this Act. Failure to provide this information may result in the inability to process your application or provide the service requested.

Your basic personal information may be disclosed to other public sector bodies where necessary or if required by law.

The address provided may be disclosed to the Tasmanian Seafood Industry Council (TSIC) to enable notification of the industry updates, annual general meeting, Board elections and to enable the Fishing Today magazine to be forwarded to you. Your personal information may also be disclosed to the Institute of Marine and Antarctic Studies (IMAS) for research and stock assessment purposes.

Personal information will be managed in accordance with the Personal Information Protection Act 2004 and may be accessed by the individual to whom it relates on request to the DPIPWE. You may be charged a fee for this service.
