3. Proposed building work (continued)

Market value of the work

Have you commenced the building work that is subject to development consent?

Yes No

Have you previously held an owner-builder permit in the last 5 years OR been a joint-owner in land where an owner-builder permit was issued in the last 5 years (whether or not that permit was in your name and your 'ownership' was either as freehold interest, registered leaseholder or a shareholder for company owned land)?

Yes No

NOTE: If you have answered yes, you are not eligible for a second permit unless there were genuinely unforeseen circumstances. If you believe you have special circumstances, you MUST complete Section 3 of the "Additional Details Form 7" for consideration and determination.

Tick here if you are claiming special circumstances and have attached a fully completed Additional Details Form 7.

Do you intend to permanently reside at the above address upon completion of the building work?

Yes No

Do you have a general construction induction training card issued within the last 2 years, or if issued more than 2 years ago, have undertaken construction work within the last 2 years?

Yes No

If the value of the building work exceeds $20,000, have you completed the owner-builder education or equivalent accreditation requirements?

Yes No

4. Type of construction

I am applying for an owner-builder permit that authorises the construction or alterations and additions to (tick as applicable):

single dwelling house or secondary dwelling or

dual occupancy (that is not a secondary dwelling)

NOTE: If the development consent is for 'dual occupancy' an owner-builder permit can only be granted in cases of special circumstances otherwise it must be refused. If you believe you have special circumstances, you MUST complete Section 4 of the "Additional Details Form 7" for consideration and determination.

Tick here if you are claiming special circumstances and have attached a fully completed Additional Details Form 7.

Do you understand that:

• It is an offence for the holder of an owner-builder permit to engage an unlicensed contractor, lend their owner-builder permit to another person, or refuse to disclose to officers of NSW Fair Trading the names and addresses of contractors working on site?

Yes No

• If you engage a contractor to do work over $20,000 on your project, the contractor must take out insurance under the Home Building Compensation Fund and give a certificate of insurance to you?

Yes No

If the land that is the subject of this application is sold within 7 years and 6 months from the date of issue of the permit and the cost of the project was more than $20,000 (labour and materials), the following MUST be included on the contract of sale:

• A conspicuous note (a consumer warning) that an owner-builder permit was issued in relation to the land (specifying the date on which it was issued) along with a note that the work done under an owner-builder permit is not required to be insured under the Home Building Act 1989 unless the work was done by a licensed contractor to the owner-builder

Yes No

• If the contract for the sale of the land does not include the conspicuous note the purchaser may void the sale prior to settlement.

Yes No

5. Declaration for all other registered lease holders of this land (other than the applicant, if applicable)

I/We, also have a leasehold interest in the land in perpetuity, for life, or a term exceeding 3 years and understand that as I/we cannot apply for an owner-builder permit (at a different building site address) within 5 years from the date of issue of this permit.

6. Declaration by owners of the prescribed land with freehold title

As owner(s) of this land title jointly or severally, I/we consent to work being carried out on the land, under the authority of an owner-builder permit by the applicant provided in section 1 of this form. Once an owner-builder permit is issued, I/we understand:

- that as an individual I/we cannot apply for an owner-builder permit (at a different building site address) within 5 years from the date of issue of this permit
- that if the land, which is the subject to this owner-builder permit application, is sold within 7 years and 6 months from the date of the permit and the cost of the project was more than $20,000 (labour and materials); the contract of sale MUST include a conspicuous note (a consumer warning) that an owner-builder permit was issued in relation to the land (specifying the date on which it was issued) along with a note that the work done under an owner-builder permit is not required to be insured under the Home Building Act 1989 unless the work was done by a licensed contractor to the owner-builder
- that the work to be performed under the permit will be not be covered by a contract of insurance under the Home Building Compensation Fund.
